IN MERORIAM

IN MEMORIAM
In sad but loving memory of our loved one, Charlie Harvey Paulette, who passed away two years ago, Aug. 25, 1958.

The loss of a loved one brings sadness and grief,
And sorrow, because we must part.
A sorrow that can't find expression
is words,
But is carried alone in the heart.

Yet the less will be tempered by
comfort and balm,
And the hope of eternal reward;
Knowing our loved one has found
sweet release,
And contentment and peace with the Lord.

There's a time to reap and a time
to sow,
There's a time to keep and a time
to let go;
A time to remember the best we can,
That we are a part of God's great
plan.
—Sadly missed by Wife and Children.

The Appomattox H. S. Rebels will open their football season on Sept. 16, playing Amherst in a Group 2 District IV league game. This should be a good game, due to the fact that Amherst has a line-up of about the same team as of last season.

The Rebels have a very fine looking team so far, and in the practice sessions seem to be rounding into playing shape very quickly.

Last year's A. H. S. team had a record of 6 wins, 3 losses and one tie. This year's team seems to be much faster and the players are larger and a bit more experienced. Barring unforeseen injuries, etc., the fans should see a good brand of football here this season.

This will be the 15th season at A. H. S. for Coach Gordon Bragg. But he is far from superstitious about it. In fact, the popular local coach admits he is looking for one of his top seasons.

That would be asking a lot, for in his twelve years record at A. H. S., Bragg's teams have won 85 of their 120 games, tied 5 and lost 30. His teams have won six district championships over the past twelve years. Last year the season record was on the winning side, but hopes are high now for an even better record.

This year's schedule will feature seven home games, which is more than the usual allotment. And this season will the home games played on the new high school athletic field, with stadium accomodations to take care of 1,400 spectators in the stands.

So football is looking up at A. H. S., and local fans should be in for lots of spectator participation this fall.

The boys playing this season are:

Backs: Dickie Guill, Bobby Henderson, Leroy Williamson, Watt Jamerson, Johnny Canada, Buddy Wilcox, John Goin, G. H. Jamerson, Jimmy Torrence, Billy A. Burke,

Ends: Robert Garrette, Bobby Williams, Willard Johnson, James Whitehead, Bently Martin, Austin Pankey;

Tackles: Gerald Lefers, Calvin Martin, Freddie Wingfield, Freddie Carter, Donald Zenter;

Guards: Donald Baldwin, Harold Conner, Samuel Inge, Robert Morris, Clarence Mayberry, James Phelps, Richard Powell;

Centers: Douglas Maxwell and Bobby Clifton.

Coronation Service

The Coronation Service for the James River Baptist Association was held Saturday, Aug. 20, at the New Hope Baptist Church.

Those participating in the service from New Hope were: Linda Love, Gloria Doss and Patricia Ferguson, queens. Their crown bearers were: Joan Coleman, Margie B. Morris, and Nelwyn Coleman; and as maidens, Linda O'Brien; lady-in-waiting, Peggy Ann Morris and Dianne Doss, and Lois Morris, princess.

"Miss Virginia Lumber"

Miss Iris Tomlin, 21-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tomlin, of Crozet, was chosen as "Miss Virginia Lumber, 1960," by the executive committee of the Lumber Manufacturer's Association of Virginia. She will be on hand to award prizes and otherwise take part in Virginia's first sawmill and logging exposition in Crozet on September 9 and 10.
